

GISC Team & Sportsmanship Etiquette

31st July 2013

Sportsmanship is:

Fairness, respect for people's differences, being a "good loser" as well as being a "good winner".

A Team

Is a group of people who help one another to achieve.

A Team Player

Is a person who willingly chooses to work well with others and take advice.

Becoming a good team player needs:

Reliability, communicating effectively, accepting differences, flexibility, showing commitment to the team and being respectful to other team members.
